

Which Work Permit suits your Company?

أي تصريح عمل يناسب منشأتك؟

THE BASICS

Any company registered with MoHRE can secure work permits for its staff, matched to the kind of role and the work involved

Get it right the first time. ProTalent Advisory guides UAE companies to pick the correct permit, apply smoothly and stay compliant.

UAE Work Permit Categories

1 Recruitment Work Permit

Hire a worker from outside the UAE to join your company.

2 Transfer Work Permit

Shift a non-UAE worker from one establishment to another.

3 Family Sponsorship Permit

For UAE residents on a family sponsorship who want to take up work.

4 Temporary Work Permit

Send a worker to carry out a task at another company for a limited time.

5 Mission Work Permit

Bring in a worker from abroad for a specific short-term assignment or time-bound project.

6 Part-time Work Permit

Engage a worker from inside or outside the UAE on a part-time contract. Working with more than one employer requires Ministry approval.

Categories follow MoHRE UAE's published list. Conditions apply, so verify the latest requirements before you apply.

UAE Work Permit Categories

7 Juvenile Work Permit

Employ a young person aged 15 to 18, subject to specific conditions.

8 Student Training & Employment Permit

Hire a 15-year-old student already living in the UAE, under defined terms and conditions.

9 UAE / GCC National Work Permit

Hire a UAE national or a GCC national.

10 Golden Visa Holder Work Permit

Hire people inside the UAE who hold a Golden Residency Visa.

11 National Trainee Work Permit

Provide training to a UAE citizen that is aligned with their approved academic qualifications.

12 Private Teacher Work Permit

Qualified specialists give private lessons to students, one-to-one or in groups.

Categories follow MoHRE UAE's published list. Conditions apply, so verify the latest requirements before you apply.